BRIEF SUMMARY

Hi, I am Anuj Yadav. I am currently pursuing a B.Tech in Computer Science and Engineering at Amity University, with an expected graduation in August 2027. My core technical passions lie in Artificial Intelligence, Full-Stack Web Development, and Data Science, and I actively apply these skills through my current role as an AI & Software Developer Intern at Binarysoft Technologies, where I have built solutions like a customizable AI chatbot and automated data pipelines. In addition to my technical work and building independent projects like a DSA Practice Platform, I hold multiple professional certifications and have developed strong communication skills working as a Student Counselor for an NGO. Ultimately, I am an adaptable, quick learner who loves tackling complex problems and is eager to contribute my skills to build intelligent, scalable software systems.
